Dear Friends:

Thank you for making the Brain Injury Association of America the Voice of Brain Injury! In 2019, your support made it possible for BIAA to advance brain injury awareness, research, treatment, and education to improve the quality of life for all people affected by brain injury.

BIAA and our chartered state affiliates welcomed millions of visitors to our websites and answered thousands of individual requests for help through our National Brain Injury Information Center’s toll-free line 1-800-444-6443.

In 2019, volunteer leaders in BIAA chapters in Maine, Texas, and Kentucky worked with local advocates to improve access to treatment and support for people who experience brain injuries – both acquired and traumatic.

BIAA continued to provide on-site, on-line, on-demand education to each of our constituencies. We also continued to develop our certification programs to meet the needs of professionals all along the career ladder.

With an eye toward providing help, hope, and healing, BIAA moved ever closer to a better quality of life for everyone by pursuing four goals:

1. Improve care and support for individuals with brain injury and their families.
2. Increase awareness and understanding of brain injury and the Brain Injury Association.
3. Accelerate research for treatment and a cure.
4. Increase BIAA’s impact commensurate with the scope of the problem.

On behalf of the Board of Directors, volunteers, and staff, I am pleased to present the Brain Injury Association of America’s 2019 Annual Report.

Susan H. Connors, President/CEO
Brain Injury Association of America
The Brain Injury Association of America (BIAA) established the National Brain Injury Information Center (NBIIC) to assist individuals and families who experience the life changing, sometimes devastating, effects of brain injury. Callers who dial 1-800-444-6443 speak to compassionate, knowledgeable specialists who assist in locating rehabilitative, legal, financial and other support services critical to maximizing recovery.

BIAA works in collaboration with its chartered state affiliates to offer NBIIC services in all 50 states and the District of Columbia. Nationwide, NBIIC specialists responded to more than 20,000 calls for help in 2019. We talked with people who sustained their injuries from a wide range of causes, ranging from motor vehicle accidents to anoxic injuries and a range of non-traumatic causes.

Top Causes of Injury

- MVA: 39%
- Fall: 18%
- Struck by/Against: 14%
- Aneurysm: 2%
- Anoxic: 6%
- Stroke: 5%
- Tumor: 2%
- Other: 8%
- Assault: 6%
Long-term issues (concussion, cognition, and caregiver coping strategies) were the most frequent call topics of 2019. This data reinforces BIAA’s recognition of brain injury as a chronic condition, emphasizing the value in making information, resources, and support available throughout the lifespan.

Sample responses from people who contacted us for information and support:

- “Thank you so much for taking the time to quell my concerns and anxiety. I so appreciate the resources you provided. We plan to get at them immediately. This will help keep us calm. Thank you.”
- “These are the best site links I have received in years! Honestly, I thank you so much. These are just what I need.”
- “I thank you from the bottom of my heart for all your kind help. I will certainly email you if I have any further questions. Your organization is awesome. Thanks again.”
Advocacy

With almost 100 new members in the 116th Congress, the Brain Injury Association of America’s top priority in 2019 was to encourage freshman lawmakers to join the Congressional Brain Injury Task Force. The Task Force is co-chaired by Reps. Bill Pascrell, Jr. (D-N.J.) and Don Bacon (R-Neb.). Its mission is to further education about and awareness of brain injury and support funding for basic and applied research on brain injury rehabilitation and development of a cure.

The Association joined with other brain injury organizations in sponsoring Brain Injury Awareness Day on March 13, 2019. The day featured an awareness fair, a briefing focused on Living Well with Brain Injury, and a reception to celebrate Brain Injury Awareness Month. The highlight of the day was a blow up brain displayed in the courtyard of the Rayburn House Office Building. Leaders from BIAA chartered state affiliates, individuals with brain injury, caregivers, and professionals met with their elected officials to advocate for the Association’s 2019 public policy priorities, as described in the Association’s legislative issue briefs:

- Increase Funding for Brain Injury Programs
- Coordinate Federal Resources
- Increase Access to Care for Individuals with Brain Injury
- Bolster Research for Traumatic Brain Injury
- Improve Awareness and Understanding of Brain Injury

In April, BIAA successfully lobbied for the Medicaid Extenders Act of 2019 to provide funding for the Money Follows the Person (MFP) program, which helps people with brain injury transition from nursing or institutional facilities to community-based services and supports and helps states rebalance their long-term services and supports systems to offer more community options. BIAA also pushed for the Disability Integration Act of 2019, which would affirm the rights of people with disabilities and seniors who need long-term services and supports to live in the community in lieu of institutional services.

July 26 marked the 29th anniversary of the signing of the American with Disabilities Act (ADA), the landmark civil rights legislation for individuals with disabilities that prohibits discrimination in housing, employment, education, telecommunications, transportation, and public places. BIAA joined other organizations and agencies in celebrating this significant accomplishment and continues to work actively for legislation to advance opportunities for individuals with brain injury to live independent and productive lives.

BIAA joined a coalition of health and disability organizations in July advocating for the House of Representatives to pass the Lifespan Respite Care Reauthorization Act, sponsored by Reps. Jim Langevin (D-R.I.) and Cathy McMorris Rodgers (R-Wash.), to strengthen respite services for family members who care for loved ones with disabilities and other chronic health conditions. The Senate passed a companion measure seven months later. At BIAA’s urging, 55 Members of Congress delivered a letter in September to Secretary of Veterans Affairs Robert Wilkie inquiring as to the VA’s plans for the veterans with TBI who still require assisted living. The fight for appropriate long-term care for our nation’s war heroes will continue.

The Association worked with Sens. Maggie Hassan (D-N.H.) and Shelley Moore Capito (R-W.Va.), along with Reps. Pascrell and Bacon to recognize and honor September 20 as National Concussion Awareness Day. This was the first time a concussion resolution passed both the House of Representatives and the United States Senate.

The Senate Special Committee on Aging held a hearing, “Falls Prevention: National, State, and Local Solutions to Better Support Seniors,” Oct. 16. With BIAA’s advocacy, the committee’s report noted that older adults are at a particularly high risk of sustaining fall-related concussions and tend to suffer worse outcomes compared to other age groups.

2019 was a year of planning and reorganization for several federal agencies addressing brain injury. The National Institutes of Health National Center for Medical Rehabilitation Research began updating its trans-NIH Rehabilitation Research plan. The Administration for Community Living published a new Statement of Organization, Functions, and Delegations of Authority. The Centers for Disease Control and Prevention announced the reorganization of the National Center for Injury Prevention and Control to better address both current and anticipated organizational needs across TBI, transportation safety, older adult falls, drug overdose, and emerging drug threats programs.
The 2019 BIAA Brain Injury Business Practice College was held Jan. 23-25 in San Diego, California, at the Wyndham San Diego Bayside. Presenters included Melinda S. Bell, J.D.; Bill Buccalo, C.P.A.; Michael Choo, M.D.; Susan Connors; Dana Daly, M.S.; Ken Diashyn; Joanne Finegan, M.S.A., CTRS, FDRT; Bill Kaiser; Matthew Kampfe, M.B.A.; Margaret Kroese, MSSW, CBIS; Chris MacDonell, FACRM; Drew Nagele, Psy.D., CBIST; Daniel Spitzer; and Peter Thomas, J.D. Sessions included overviews of federal legislation and regulations relating to brain injury rehabilitation; an update on CARF accreditation and best practices; the role of culture in organizations; a panel discussion on recruitment and retention; an overview of cyber security and cyber risk management with respect to HIPAA; a review of special needs trusts and settlements; a panel discussion of payor relations; and a panel discussion on state brain injury market trends.

The Academy of Certified Brain Injury Specialists (ACBIS) has been a cornerstone of the Association’s professional education since 1996. BIAA processed more than 1,750 applications in 2019, expanding the certification to more than 7,397 specialists in the United States and other countries, and issued nearly 600 certificates of completion to paraprofessionals and family members who attended Brain Injury Fundamentals trainings. The Association is grateful to the professionals who volunteer their expertise to maintain and enhance the quality of ACBIS education and the rigor of the certification process:

Public Awareness

BIAA lead the second year of the #ChangeYourMind awareness campaign. The 2018 to 2020 campaign provides a platform for educating the public about the incidence of brain injury and the needs of people with brain injuries and their families. It also lends itself to outreach within the brain injury community to de-stigmatize the injury, empower those who have survived, and promote the many types of support that are available.

Through its Academy of Certified Brain Injury Specialists (ACBIS) program, BIAA increased awareness of brain injury among professionals. The Association created shareable social media graphics and enhanced its communications strategy to engage more clinicians throughout the continuum of care. ACBIS furthers BIAA’s mission to provide education, training, certification, and ongoing resources for clinicians in the brain injury community.

BIAA’s social media reach continued to increase in 2019. The Association used four major platforms – Twitter, Facebook, LinkedIn, and Instagram – to promote awareness online. Followers increased by 20% across all platforms. BIAA also participated in numerous online awareness campaigns including Falls Prevention Awareness Month, Stroke Awareness Month, and National Concussion Awareness Day.

In 2019, more than 40,000 copies of BIAA’s quarterly magazine, THE Challenge!, were distributed in print and online at www.biausa.org. Issues focused on women and brain injury, navigating systems, research, and healing with the arts.
BIAA continued its collaboration with the Brain Injury Research Center at the Icahn School of Medicine at Mount Sinai to develop and disseminate “Guidelines for the Rehabilitation and Disease Management of Adults with Moderate to Severe Traumatic Brain Injury (TBI).” The aim of this research project, funded by BIAA through generous donations, is to identify how much rehabilitation adult patients with moderate to severe TBI should receive, in what setting, and at what point after injury in order to achieve the best results.

Expert panelists are reviewing literature in five areas: behavioral, cognitive, functional, medical, and vocational/participation rehabilitation. Researchers, originally expected to complete the guidelines and recommendations in 2017, have encountered vastly more literature than expected and the end date has been tentatively set for December 2020.

Leaders of the project include Wayne A. Gordon, Ph.D., ABPP/Cn, Marcel Dijkers, Ph.D., Jennifer Bogner, Ph.D., ABPP, FACRM; Keith Cicerone, Ph.D., ABPP-Cn; Kristen Dams-O’Connor, Ph.D.; Steven R. Flanagan, M.D.; Stephanie Kolakowsky-Hayner, Ph.D., CBIST, FACRM; and Angela Yi, Ph.D.

To further support research, BIAA held a grant competition with funding from its Brain Injury Research Fund.

The goal of the grant program is “Finding Cures for Brain Injury,” with research priorities in three areas:

1. Chronic Brain Injury (CBI) – What neurological processes are triggered by CBI that cause neurodegenerative diseases and how can the progression from injury to neurological disease be halted?
2. Childhood traumatic brain injury (TBI) – What factors create the risk of adult consequences from childhood TBI and how can that risk be diminished?
3. Excess Mortality – What biological processes are responsible for excess mortality from moderate and severe brain injury and how can these relationships be ameliorated?
In support of these goals and research priorities, the following grants were offered:

1. Dissertation Grants of up to $5,000
2. Young Investigator Seed Grants of up to $25,000
3. Brain Injury Scholar Seed Grants of up to $25,000

The BIAA Research Committee, chaired by Dr. John Corrigan, reviewed numerous Letters of Interest and invited specific applicants to submit a full proposal. From those proposals, the following projects were selected to receive funding:

“Meningeal and Trigeminal Contributions to Post-TBI Pain”
Seed Grant of $25,000
Grantee: Orion Furmanski, Ph.D., Uniformed Services University (Dept. of Anatomy, Physiology, and Genetics)

“The Epidemiology of Comorbidities and Associations with Functional Outcome among Adults with TBI.”
Seed Grant of $24,893
Grantee: Raj Kumar, Ph.D., Icahn School of Medicine at Mount Sinai (Rehabilitation and Human Performance)

“Precision Identification and Targeting of Rod Microglia in Diffuse Brain-injured Cortex”
Dissertation Award of $5,000
Grantee: Katherine Giordano, University of Arizona College of Medicine (Child Health)

“Impact of Intestinal Inflammation on Long-Term Neurological Outcomes Following TBI in Mice”
Dissertation Award of $5,000
Grantee: Marie Hanscom, University of Maryland-Baltimore (STAR-ORC)

The Fund was established in 2018 thanks to a generous bequest from the estate of Linda Redmann and is supplemented by donations from the public.
