

Roadmap to Becoming a Certified Brain Injury Specialist

website URL | phone number goes here

Who Can Become a Certified Brain Injury Specialist (CBIS)?

- OTs, PTs, SLPs
- Neuropsychologists
- Behavior analysts
- Nurses
- Case managers
- Music and recreation therapists
- Special education teachers
- Social workers
- Rehabilitation counselors
- Vocational specialists
- Other professionals in the field of brain injury

Eligibility Requirements

- 500 hours of currently verifiable direct contact experience with an individual or individuals with brain injury
 - Experience can be paid employment and/or academic internship
 - The qualifying experience must have included formal supervision or have been conducted while the applicant operated under a professional license
 - Volunteer work does not qualify
- Applicants must have a high school diploma or equivalent
- If operating under a professional license, must be in good standing

Renewing the Certification

